TAKING AWAY THE SANDWAIKIKI BEACHES ARE BEING SPOILED.Hundreds of Tons of Sand Taken at Diamond Head said to Affect the Beach Nearer Town.Is Honolulu's famous beach for bathing and sun-bathing at Waikiki being spoiled by the taking of sand for building purposes? Those who have watched the stretch of beach from Diamond Head towards Kakaako for a long time say that the sand has been appreciably lowered, leaving the coral more bare than it was formerly and one theory is that the carting of hundreds of loads of sand from some parts of the beach is responsible for the change.The sand is taken away from beyond where the bathing resorts are located but there is a tendency to equalize along the length of the beach. A loss at one place is levelled over by gradual reductions at other places, say those who have the kicks to make, and as hundreds of tons have been removed, the effect is beginning to be noticeable.There is plenty of splendid sand for building purposes all along the beach from Kakaako round Koko Head, but the places from which it is being taken are just this side of Diamond Head. It is taken from private property and there is no law to interfere with the removal of any amount. The longer haul from Koko Head would be an added expense which the users of the sand do not want to pay, hence if the taking of sand is really doing harm to the places for bathing, public sentiment is the only thing that can stop it. The bathing resorts at Waikiki have made part of the fame of Honolulu, but some bathers have remarked lately that the shore which cuts the feet of those who step on it, appears to be more plentiful above the sand than formerly.PRIZE FIGHT CARNIVAL.NEW YORK, January 18.—Dan A.
Stuart, who arrived in this city tonight, said that Carson City will have another pugilistic carnival next spring.
Stuart is satisfied that the last performing finish fight in Nevada will not be repeated, and it is the only place in the country where fistie contests can be fought to a finish. He said that, while in Carson, he examined plans for a new athletic clubhouse, approved them, and work on the building will begin next week."I have two fights in my mind for the carnival," he said. "They will be a heavyweight battle between the winner of the Jeffries-Eulin contest at Cincinnati in February, and Bob Fitzsimmons, and a bout between Terry McGovern and a leading English or Australian feather-weight. I am convinced that Fitzsimmons will fight again. I think that the public, by next spring, will demand a more interesting and a more dangerous contest.
Jeffries and the former champion. Of course, if Ruhlman should best Jeffries, I would have to give the preference to the Akron man."SLANDER A CRIME.SACRAMENTO, January 18.—The Senate Judiciary Committee at a meeting this afternoon, decided by a vote of 7 to 3 to report favorably the bill of Taylor of Alameda, adding a section to the Penal Code, making slander a misdemeanor. It was agreed, however, to amend the bill in order to make it somewhat broader and avoid enacting an oppressive law, and Taylor and Devlin of Sacramento were made a sub-committee to do the work. Taylor explained that the offense was surprisingly common, and that civil action offered only a unsatisfactory remedy.
He thought that the more existence of the law would check a pernicious habit.
Senator Curtin led the objectors, his point being that the bill, as drawn, made improper conversation relative to any person in the presence of but one witness an offense, and insisted that it was too narrow. The committee agreed with him to that extent and the amendment will include a clause increasing the number of persons whose presence is necessary to establish the offense.LOVESICK BOY'S AWFUL DEED.DENVER, Jan. 23.—Claude Hider, 19 years of age, shot Mrs. Emma Douglas, a divorced woman, and Harry R. Haley, and then killed himself in the Hotel Saxon, where the three lived. The woman was shot in the thigh and will probably recover. Haley was dangerously wounded in the right lung. Jealousy was the cause of the shooting. Haley is an expressman. Hider has no occupation. His brother, who had served in the army in the Philippines, killed himself about a year ago.NEVADA LOTTERY KNOCKED OUT.RENO, Nev., Jan. 22.—A special to the "Gazette" from Carson announces the defeat of the lottery bill today by the decisive vote of 27 to 3. The matter was brought up by the anti-lottery forces on a resolution to memorialize Congress expressing the view and of the present Legislature as utterly opposed to amending the constitution of Nevada to permit the licensing of a lottery company. Wilson of Elko and Jacobs of Washoe led the fight, which was organized by Speaker Van Duzer.STREET MEETING CAMPAIGN.Miss Ackerman and Miss Murcutt have arranged to begin a street campaign against the drink evil. They will hold street meetings at which they will make addresses. A number of singers have volunteered to assist in these meetings. Both Miss Murcutt and Miss Ackerman addressed the meeting for women only held yesterday afternoon at Central Union church. Miss Ackerman will lecture at the Y. M. C. A. meeting at 4 o'clock next Sunday. Miss Mur-cutt will address the Women's Board at Central Union Church next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.NOT THE ACT OF GOD.The managers of the Rochester orphan asylum which was burned last week with awful sacrifice of life, have been charged by one of the trustees with negligence in not having the building provided with a night-watchman. The New York Tribune rejoices to learn that the disaster is not to be recorded officially as "the act of God." The responsibility rests on some man, and he should be held accountable.BEAT OUT OF AN INCREASE OF HIS PENSION.A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in '47 and '48, I contracted Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy has kept me from getting an increase in my pension for on every renewal a dose of it restores me." It is unequalled as a quick cure for diarrhoea and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Company, general agents
